PRESIDENT'S report

On behalf of UTS Olympic, we welcome Nick Tana and Paul Efkos, as well as all the Perth supporters who have made a long trek from the west to support their team. The induction of Perth into Ericsson Cup has been a breath of fresh air for all teams in the National League and has set a bench mark for many teams to follow.

We also welcome our supporters who we know are equal to, if not more loyal than the Pert supporters, and the Club, from players to coach to Board assure them that the performance of the team in the second round will be much improved. For the very first time David Ratcliffe has had a headache in choosing who to leave out, and this has not been the case at any time during the first round, when at least 3 of our players served on National Youth Team duties and a further 3 players served on National team duties with the Senior Squad.

We know we have a good squad of players and we are sure that in tonight's game against Perth will be the turn-around for the team.

One further thing, we would like to inform members that the club has been in a position to retire approximately $238,191 from the Club's past debts out of the capital contributed directly from the Consortium funds, when the pledge was originally for $50,000 reduction per annum.

We hope you enjoy tonight's game.

DAVID RATCLIFFE

Tonight we welcome Perth Glory to Belmore Oval for our first ever home game against Perth. Perth have had a good start to their first season both on the field and also with the large crowds they have been getting and the great support they have been given by their supporters. It is something that all club should be aiming at, getting supporters to support there team. Perth have a number of very good players and a few could count themselves unlucky not to have been chosen for the National squad.

It was good to see Australia do so well in the International tournament. Kris Trajanovski did very well and must have impressed Terry Venables. Alistair Edwards scored the winner against South Korea in a very brief appearance. But unfortunately Milan Blagojevic had a knee injury and wasn't fit for any of the games. We must also congratulate Ivan Zelic, Brett Emerton and Carlos Gonzalez for playing there part in the Australian Youth team qualifying for the finals in Malaysia this June.

The break has given us a chance to get a few of our injuries cleared up and we now have nearly a full strength squad available. We also have a major new signing is David Mitchell. "Mitch" brings alot of experience to the team and I am sure he will be very successful for the club.

I am sorry to say Steve Darby is no longer with the club, I am probably more disappointed than anyone as I know how much work and effort Steve put into the club.

Tonight is very important for us as we desperately need a victory. So here.s hoping that you.ll all get behind the players and lift them to get the result we all want.
